a. Preceptor Guidelines	a. Dan Palladino presented the Preceptor Guidelines at Delta. They pay their preceptors an additional $3.00/hr, which is part of their company budget. They have approximately 400 students from 4 regions doing ride time each year. Most of the preceptors have an instructional background. Scott Latulippe presented the Preceptor Program at United. Their preceptors have to have been licensed to the level they are precepting at (EMT-I or EMT-P) for 3 years before they can become a preceptor. They also have Lead Preceptors who are responsible for the paperwork and final evaluations. They charge EMT-I courses $50.00 per student and EMT-P courses $150.00 per student to be able to pay their preceptors an extra $2.00/hr. The committee will continue this discussion next month looking at cost issues, incentives to be a preceptor, etc.	a. No action items necessary.
